LABOR VERSUS CAPITAL.

THE FIGHTS IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE COUNTRY CONTINUE.

Trouble Threatened at Braddock, Pennaylvania-Carnegie's Proposition - Chicago Painters Will Continue the Strike. "The Special Call"—Labor Notes.

PITTSBURG, April 28.—There are prospects of trouble at Braddock. The report that 200 men would arrive from the Lochiel works, at Harrisburg, created intense excitement among the strikers, and an outbreak is feared if the company attempts to import new nien. The report was denled by SuperIntendent Jones that the feeling is still

Last night as a party of eight workmen were on their way homo they were greeted along the route with cries of "black sheep" and "senb," but there was no violence. This was the nearest approach to a breach of the peace that has occurred since the lnauguration of the strike. This morning Sheriff McCandless is at Braddock in conference with the leaders of the Knights of Labor.

The people must be taught what their . survivors. polltical rights are: they must be taught that boodlers and bribers are traitors; they must be taught to watch the politician after his election as well as before it; they must be taught that the lands of the nation belong to the people of the nation, and not to thieves who were smart enough to steal them; they must be taught that the rule of the corporation should come beneath tho rule of the people."

Carnegie's Proposition Refused.

PITTSBURG, April 25.—A member of the firm of Carnegie, Phlpps & Company, said yesterday: "Mr. Carnegie, as a shrewd business man, has been carefully scanning the outlook for the future, and he has come to the conclusion that, inside of two years, wages will be down to $1 per day for laborers; but in the face of this, he is willing to make a contract with his men for three years, in which he offers them 20 per cent. more than they can hope to receive elsewhere, but the offer is refused. This explains Mr. Carnegie's position thoroughly."

The Burlington Men to Get Positions. CHICAGO, April 28.—There is a probabiliity that a number the striking Burlington engineers will be given positions on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe extension in Chleago. Chairman Hoge is authority for a statement that the Santa Fe officials have promised to 'employ twenty-five crews within the next two weeks. In no caso has there been any disposition shown to blacklist the striking engineers, but the switchmen have not been so fortunate. Several of the switchmen have been told that "there was no place vacant, and never would be."

Chicago Painters.

CHICAGO, April 28.—The striking painters held a special meeting and decided by a slim majority to continuo tho strike. It ls said that the treasury is depleted and that those who have succeeded in obtaining work are refusing to pay in their assessments. A number of men declared at the meeting that they would apply for work at once. Another attempt to secure an Interview with the master painters will be made by a committee appointed for that purpose.

Agreed to the Union Rate.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—James Gliilnder & Sons, glass firm, has agreed to pay the union rate of wages to its employes, but claims 'the 'right to employ non-union men if It should so desire. This privilege the American Flint Glassworkers' union refused to concede, and the dispute between the firm and its men is still unsettled. Another meeting will most likely be held shortly to adjust the matter.

Secret Circular Denounced.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—A secret provisional committee of the Knights of Labor, recently organized in New York city, has issued a circular containing charges against the present officials. When shown the circular General Secretary Litchman pronounced every word in it a malicious falsehood. 'These are the people," sald the secretary, "who are endeavoring to cause dissensions in the order."

The Boycott Spreading.

CINCINNATI, April 28.—The striking brewers are greatly encouraged at the success of their boycott on pool beer. Many labor organizations have passed resolutions declaring a boycott on all the beer manufactured in ; the three cities. Here are the resolutions passed Thursday night by one of the largest Knights of Labor assemblies in District

Double Suicide.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28. - A most singular double suicide which is wrapped in the score profound mystery was discovered by the police in a small three story building front lng on a narrow court running eastward from Second street below Girard avenue. The occupants of the house, Ernest Eichfield. a tailor, sixty years old, and his wife, fiftyfive years old, have not been seen since Monday last. The officers were not notified, and entering the house, found the! . of the woman suspended to the dom of the room in the second story, and the body of the man hanging to the door of a closet in the third story. Both bodies were suspended by pieces of clothes line, and from the similarity of the knots it is believed that both were tied by the same person and that the act was deliberately planned and carried out. No clew to the cause of the crime has yot been found.

The man whom he recommended got the office. His action, however, was very displeasing to the citizens of the place with whom the new postmaster was not on good terms. Wednesday afternoon Mr. Judd went down to Mapleton on business and was rotten egged out of town.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S VISIT

TO BERLIN MORE OF A SUCCESS THAN WAS EXPECTED.

Lord Salisbury Relieved - The English Cablust Feared the Result-Russia's Ob-Ject in Causing Revolts in Ronmaula-A

French Riot-Notes From Abroad. London, April 28.—The visit of Queen Victoria to Berlin has proved to be a success after all, far greater than was expected, and Lord Salishury has undoubtedly breathed a sigh of relief. What with the perplexing detalls of government upon him, the blunders of the party in parliament and fear for the results of the royal visit to Germany's capltal, where it was supposed a cordial hatred for the English and especially for the Engilsh queen existed, the honors of premiership rest on the incumbent of that office with the proverblal uneasiness of the monarch's

The greatest apprehension was felt by the cabinet over the queen's visit. They feared lest the Battenberg Incldent might be reopened, by what they considered the queen's inopportune appearance in Berlin, and that; fight sooner." results would follow of which official notice must be taken. But thanks to the loyalty of Berliners, and to the diplomacy of Prince Bismarck, nothing happened to mar the royal visit. If the German people were not even demonstrative towards England's queen, they were at least respectful and entirely proper. The press had been coached by the chancellor before the queen left Fiorence, and The people took their tone from their courteous though unenthusiastic greet-

Besides this, Bismarck himself set the example by his friendly bearing and urbanity. The English journals contain magnified accounts of the queen's interview with Bismarck, which is very likely to be over estimated. The meeting was only a friendly interchange of courtesies, and it is said that conversation between the queen and the chancellor was confined mainly to the condition of Emperor Frederick and the provisions made for the empress at his death.

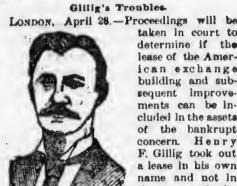

The Object of the Roumanian Revolts. BUCHARKST, April 28.—The light cavalry has succeeded in reducing the peasants in the disturbed districts to submission. It is not likely to be the last we shall hear of disturbances ln Roumanla, since the Russian minister, Hitrovo, with a large force of agents, is located at Bucharest for no other purpose than to create them. Russia, by agitation and intrigue, continues to maintain a pro-Russian faction in the country. It joins with the opposition against the governmont, which under the authority of King Charles Inclines to Austria. By organizing revolution Russia hopes to convince King Charles that he cannot maintain a peaceful authority in Roumania except by becoming the czar's ally in his pan-Slavic designs.

It was the domestic policy of the late Mlnister Bratiano, who resorted to seemlngly unjustifiable means at the last election to secure a Conservative majority In the chainber, of which complaint is made. This was first rendered a necessity by the activity of for fifteen days where no newspaper man can the Russian agitators and next used by them to stir up revolt. Hitrovo does not attempt to cover up his operations, but openly encourages Anarchy with the promise that Russia will sustain the revolutionists. King Charles dare not send Hitrove home to Russia, for it would be soon magnified into a caucus belll. The effort Russla is making to force Roumania into an unwilling alliance is undoubted evidence of a contemplated advance of her armles into Bulgaria. She does not want Roumania as a belligerent in her path. For an indefinite period now Russia may be expected to devote herself to the organization of revolts in Roumelia and

The Boulanger Plaus.

Paris, April 28. - A dispatch from Nancy says a rlot broke out there Thursday evening, a mob of Boulangists attacking the students' club with stones and other inissiles. JOHN L. ON SHIPBOARD.

He Insults Ladles and Raises Hades Generally—He is Interviewed. Boston, April 28,-Sullivan's career on board the steamer Catelonia coming over was about as inglorious as his fight with Mitchell. He was on a spree nearly all the way over, insulted ladies, beat Annie Livingston, the woman traveling with him as his wife, and fought the employes of the steamer. The captain threatened to put him in irons and was only dissuaded by Sullivan's friends. Rev. R. W. Manley, a passenger, claims he cursed his children, and threatened to "swipe the hrats out of existence." His brutailty nearly prostrated Mrs. Manley. The steward broke a soda syphon over Sullivan's head, which so pleased Sullivan that he invited him to take a drink. The engineer threatened to scald the champion unless he stayed out of the engine room. He braced up sufficiently before the arrival to meet his friends.

Sullivan was found by a reporter last night. He was asked for a statement in reply to the stories. He said:

"There is no truth in them except that I did a little guying, but nothing more. You know if I ever drink a glass of beer, the story goes everywhere that Sullivan is drunk. i did have a ilttle fun with that clergyman or missionary. You see, he undertook to talk religion to me. I said to hlm: 'What's the difference between heaven and hell, anyhow? 'Why, Mr. Sullivan,' he said, 'don't you know the difference between heaven and hell, don't you read the scriptures? 'Scriptures be dainned,' I said, 'what do I want to read the scriptures for? I am not a clergyman, I'm a fighter.'

"He soon gave me up as a hopeless case. It any one says I did anything worse on the steamer than have a little fun by such guying, i'll make them prove lt. READ THIS.—H. Ayers Jackson has invented and patented a new scientific and certain method for cutting garments for either ladies or gentlemen, to fit the form.

The human bust is a truncated cone, each one varying in its peculiar outline, with a series of constant changes, no two measuring exactly alike. Hence to make a perfectly fitting garment, it must be made to conform to the outline of the form whatever that may be. This can not be done by a chart, nor can it be done by guess. The sensible, scientific way is to take an accurate measurement of the form, plat the measurement on paper, cut it out and reduce it to outline on the cloth straight on the goods which can then be cut, allowing for seams. This system is based upon practical, scientific principles, and when measures are carefully taken the garment can be cut and made to fit exactly without trying it on. This system is equally exact and certain in fitting eleeves.

Miss Sue Berry is the authorized agent for this, the Franko-Prussian, system for measuring, cutting and teaching to meas-Miss Lizzie McKibben, of Augusta, is ure and cut garments for either ladies or gentlemen, and she refers to Mrs. Judge Phister, Mrs. Judd, Mrs. T. Impurities in the blood produce diseases. Bodlly and mental health depend upon a healthy condition of the blood. The blood, particularly in the spring and during the hot summer months, becomes clogged with im parities, which poison it and generate disease. ### MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

FRIGHTFUL EXPLOSION UNDER A CHICAGO STORE.

Caused By Foolishly Going Near a Leaking Gas Main With a Lighted candle-The Building Wrecked-Many Injured, But Strange to Say None Seriously

CHICAGO. April 28.-An explosion that pitched seventy people into the air throwing one man fifty feet, wrecked sixteen olg plate glass windows, ruined $35 worth of clothing and caused a stampede of hundreds of people from the upper stories of the tail buildings. eccurred in a basement at State and Jackson streets Thursday evening. Queerly enough no one was kliled or even fatally injured.

A couple of workmen for the Houston-Thompson Electric Light company were attempting to drill a hole across under the street for a conduit, when a gas main was lnadvertently punctured. One of the pair lit a candle to see what was the matler with the drill. The next lastant the two workmen, the seventy odd clerks and customers in the Bell clothing store, on the first floor, the massive plate glass front, the heaps of ready made apparel, were mired up in an almost lnextricable mass with broken timbers and falling plaster, while people for blocks around thought an earthquake had occurred, and rushed peil-mell, luto the

The woman and child were thrown off their feet, but were virtually uninjured. and quickly made their escape. Dunlop's back was badly wrenched, and it is feared he is hurt internally. Both the workmen, Charles Ash and George St. John, were seriously injured, being fearfully bruised and eut, but neither is in apparent danger of death. The others hurt seriously are Henry Land, T. J. Dungley and E. E. Klienhaus, all employes in the store.

Every person in the establishment at the time was more or less scratched, bruised and bedraggied, but were able to make their way out without assistance. The fire was quickly extinguished by the city department, else results to the victims would have been perhaps something frightful. J. H. Cohn, owner of the Beli store, estimates his loss at $25,000. It is fully insured, but there is a doubt whether he can collect as the damage in the main was not caused by fire, N. Corwith, owner of the building, has a loss of $10,000; insured A curious illustration of the force of the explosion is the fact that few of the fragments of the great windows found were larger than two lnches square.

Penitentlary Blaze-Elsewhere. DEADWOOD, Dak., April 28.—Central City, a town of about one thousand inhabitants. two mlies above this place, was totally destroyed by fire, Thursday morning. The loss is estimated at from $150,000 to $200,000.

Insurance light. No lives were lost.

The whole community is homeless and houseless, entire families losing their ali and escaping only with their fives. The fire originated in a bakery. The entire fire de-partment of Deadwood and Lead City were promptly on hand, but a fallure of the water supply rendered their assistance useless. The town was in ashes within two hours after the commencement of the fire. All the necessary relief is being sent by the adjoining towns.

In the Chester Penltentlary.

CHESTER, Ill., April 28.-A destructive fire started in the attic of the building occupied by the Western Boot and Shoe Manufacturing company, at the penitentiary yesterday afternoon, and in a short time it was destroyed with its contents-a large plant machinery, stock and manufactured goods.

The officers had barely time to get the convicts, 125 of whom were employed by the contractors, out of the building before it was a mass of flames from floor to roof. It cost the state about $1',000. The loss to the shoe company is $75,000. It is insured for $26,000

The origin of the fire is a mystery. A brick building near by used as a box manufactory by Hoover & Gilddon, of Newport, Ky., who are manufacturing ladies shoes at the prison, was also burned, with a loss to them of about $1,000.

Quadruple Holocaust.

BLACKVILLE, S. C., April 28.-The dwelling house of Louis Stroman, near Springfield, on the Barnwell & Alston railroad, was burned at 4 o'clock Thursday morning. Four of Stroman's children, two boys and two girls, who were sleeping upstairs, perished in the flames. Stroman's eldest son was frightfully burned while frautically endeavoring to rescue his brothers and sis ters, and will probably die.

Lumber Mills.

FORT MADISON, Iowa, April 28.—The Fort Madison Lumber company's saw milis caught fire supposably from a spark from a passing Chicago, Bulington & Quincy locomotive Thursday, and were totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at $45,000; insurance, $15,000. The mllis had not yet started for the season's run.

Half a Pennsylvania Town Burned. GOLDSBORO, Pa., April 28.—Fire this morning destroyed half of the town. One entire block of the best houses and stores was ruined. Several narrow escapes for life added to the excitement. One man was severely injured. The loss is about $40,000;

BUTTE, Mont., April 28.—A passing englne yesterday set fire to the snow sheds near Mullan tunnel in the main range Rocky mountain crossing of the Northern Pacific. Over one thousand feet were burned. Trains will be delayed several days,

A Boston Tenement Honse. Boston, April 28.-A two story wooden tenement house, No. 278 Sumner street, East Boston, was burned last night. Loss $20,000: fully insured, and Mrs. Mary Murphy and Mrs. Eilen Murphy were severely burned in descending the stairs.

Boston, April 28. - Mr. John Boyle O'Reiliey, editor of the Pliot, has received from his special correspondent at Rome, a cablegrain stating that the reports sent forth from there through agents of the London Chronicle, that the pope has condemned the plan of campaign, are false.
